

Gum base (gelatin)

Gelatin gum base is an unflavored pre-blended base that allows for easy compounding of popular oral dosage forms such as gummies and gelatin troches. Medisca's gelatin gum base is conveniently processed into small pieces, making it easier to compound dosage forms that increase patient compliance and satisfaction.

Features & benefits

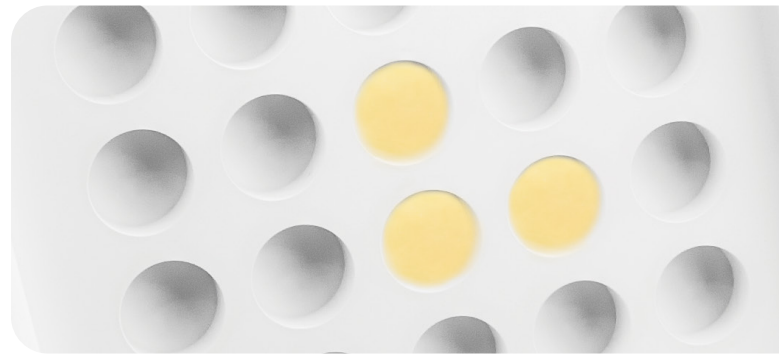

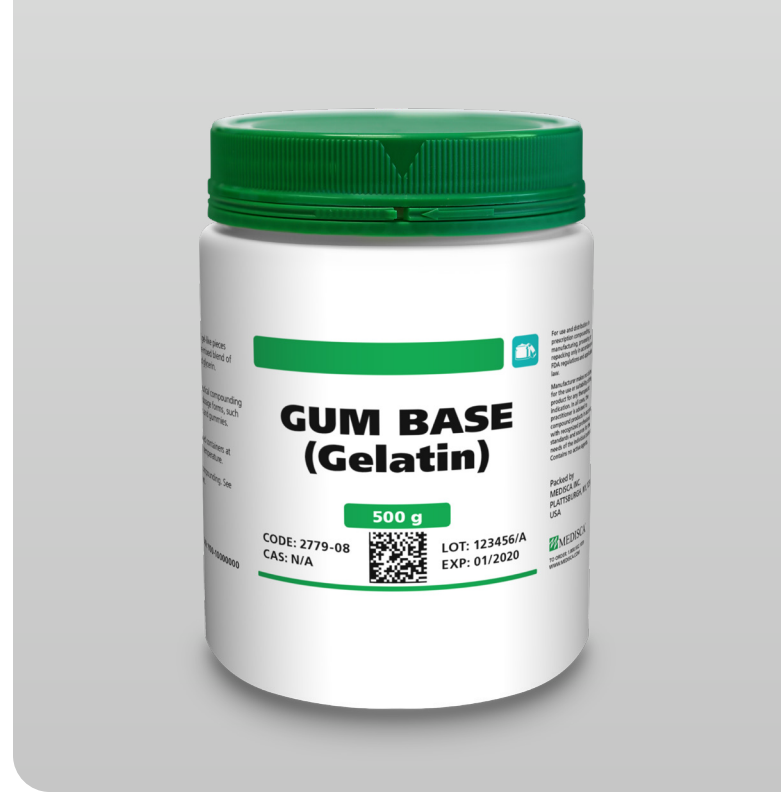

| | |
|---|---|
| API compatibility | Compatible with lipophilic and hydrophilic drugs |
| Appearance | Yellow gel-like solid, processed into small easy-to-use pieces |
| Intended use | For pharmaceutical compounding of oral dosage forms such as gummies and gelatin troches |
| Tolerance to API base & salt forms | Excellent |
| Composition | Consists of a blend of gelatin, water and glycerin |
| Melting range | 42-47 °C (107.60 - 116.60 °F) |
| Preservative effectiveness | Passes USP microbial challenge test <51> |

Scan QR code to learn more

For more information

1-800-932-1039 medisca.com

Medisca's circular Chew-A-Treat[®] mold (product no. 8212-01) can be used to compound high concentration gelatin troches thanks to its 3.8 mL cavity.